Maryland New Directions (MND) has provided free career counseling, employment readiness and job placement to disenfranchised job seekers in Baltimore since 1973.

What's New at MND?

MND Recognizes Contributors in New Donor Wall

MND recently installed a donor wall designed by MICA graduate Chris McCampbell to honor corporate, foundation, and individual donors. The wall adds new dimension to the agency's entrance and highlights the fact that our funders make it possible to operate MND on a daily basis.

Members of MND's highest giving level, The Chairman's Circle, include Baltimore Women's Giving Circle, Bank of America, The Harry and Jeannette Weinberg Foundation, Inc., The Venable Foundation, and The Zanvyl and Isabelle Krieger Fund, Inc.

Thank You to Our Volunteers and Interns!

MND's regular volunteers and interns: Kimberley Douglass, Mistoura Salami, Nelly D'Almeida, Johnny DeQuair, Norraine Miller. Not pictured: Tyhera Gross, Marybeth Heather, Hye Jeong Han, Brigitt Thompson

From researching neighborhood data to assisting in workshops, volunteers give MND a much appreciated helping hand.

MND has a strong team of volunteers and interns that continues to grow. They bring many different skills, talents and interests to the organization, all to benefit low-income job seekers. Thank you to our new and ongoing volunteers!

Spotlight: Kimberley Douglass, MND Intern

MND Graduate Intern Kim Douglass discovered MND while studying at Argosy University. Earning her Master's Degree in Counseling, she was attracted to MND's focus on helping others overcome barriers and achieve success.

Kim Douglass

Since joining MND in May 2011, Kim has enjoyed facilitating workshops, providing individual counseling, and brainstorming strategies with staff. She also began weekly group counseling meetings for clients struggling to overcome personal barriers to employment.

While MND staff and clients appreciate Kim's hard work, Kim appreciates the opportunity to grow. "Every time I meet somebody new, I learn something new about myself," said Kim. "MND has a big heart. You feel very comfortable instantly."
